In this division, it is not necessary to reserve a calendar date in order to have a matter heard; you only need to notice a proper date from the court's published list of available calendar dates. To get the list, just click on "Calendars" at the court's website. If you have any calendar questions, you may contact courtroom deputy and calendar clerk Dan Sondheim by email (preferred) at Dan_Sondheim@canb.uscourts.gov or by phone at (707) 547-5920. This week's daily hearing calendars are generally posted on the district's website two or three days before the hearing. Just click on "Calendars."
