

Published on United States Bankruptcy Court (<http://www.canb.uscourts.gov>)

Home > Two separate online training webinar courses are offered, one for a creditor's attorney and another for a debtor's attorney, what is the difference between these courses?

Answer:

The creditor's attorney course focuses primarily on filing motions, adversary proceedings and claims. The debtor's attorney course includes the instruction and materials provided by the creditor's attorney course, plus additional instruction and materials on filings particular to debtors, such as filing a petition in a case.

FAQ Category:

Training

Source URL (modified on 11/06/2014 - 10:32am):

<http://www.canb.uscourts.gov/faq/training/two-separate-online-training-webinar-courses-are-offered-one-creditors-attorney-and>