Home > May debtors pay their filing fee by personal check, credit or debit card?

Answer:

No. The only acceptable forms for debtors to pay fees are money orders, cashiers' checks or, if paying in person at a divisional office, cash in the exact amount of the required payment. Money orders and cashiers' checks should be made payable to "Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court," in the exact amount of the required payment. The Clerk's Office does not make change. Do not send cash through the mail.
