Revised:

Monday, March 14, 2016

(a) Copy of Claim.

Unless the Court orders otherwise, on an objection to claim, a copy of the claim, absent any attachments or exhibits, shall be included.

(b) Factual Dispute.

Where a factual dispute is involved, the initial hearing on an objection shall be deemed a status conference at which the Court will not receive evidence. Where the objection involves only a matter of law, the matter may be argued at the initial hearing. Any notice of hearing on a claim objection shall so state.

(c) Schedule for Filing Papers.

Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 3007(a), the schedules set forth in B.L.R. 9014-1(b) and (c) shall apply to Objections to Claims.
